

Annex K: Vulnerable Groups Within the Community (Restricted Access)

Name / Organisation	Telephone Number	Address	Additional Information

Vulnerable people list are constantly changing and therefore it would not be viable for Communities to permanently hold a list. Emergencies can also make people vulnerable who are not normally and therefore any details should be collated following a major incident.

Information should be provided to the emergency services and welfare agencies as a priority. The Community list should be secondary.